COMPANY STRUCTURE

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

In light of the various need-growth paths within our industry sector, it is critical that whenever given an opportunity to render our services, that we do so with utmost adherence to standards, compliance, show strong sense of responsibility, portray awareness of business growth, dignity, consideration for the other and without losing touch of the motive. While we may be medium enterprise, the provision of our services should be excellent and without compromise remain accompanied by an ethical drive.

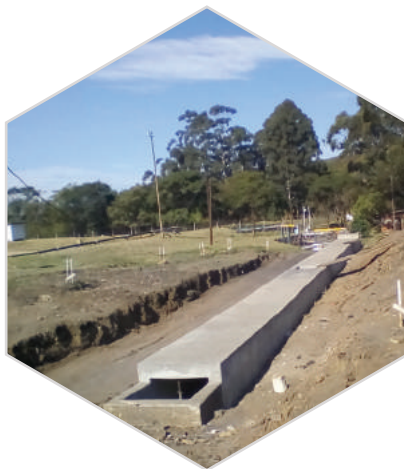

As director, management and all team players of the business, we are all called upon to hold ourselves responsible for the achievement of the above values in a very stern manner.

It is thus our belief that if we hold on to these principles, we should wake up to a business that not only portrays an admirable functionality but equally one that sets a stream of examples in it ranking. Hence, we embark on continuous improvement in both our management systems, knowledge and business environment as large.

Our operational processes are streamlined for the purpose of cost effectiveness, which is a greater benefit to our clients and all stakeholders. Quality of work and services we offer to our clients is our priority, that is, regardless of costs.
